POWHATAN C. H., VA., February 23.—
Dr. E. L. Thompkins, coroner of Powhatan county, held an inquest over the body of Isaac Wiley, colored, who was found dead in his room last Monday morning. Simons, E. S. Winfree and Austin Willis (colored). Dr. Thompkins and Dr. R. D. Tucker wers examined as winesses. The jury retired, and in about thirty minutes brought in the following verdett: "That Isaac Wiley came to his death from tubercules of the stomach, probably caused from a liek on the jaw, inflicted by Sallie Dodson, while he was held by Moses Dodson. Moses Dodson and Sallie Dodson, his wife, were both presented by the grand jury at the last term of court of this county, and charged with an assault upon Isaac Wiley, with intentions to kill or disable the said Wiley, and they were bathed for their appearance at the next term of this court for trial. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 23.—The representatives of the two factions in the City Councils will go to Richmond tonight to contend for and against the Southbound Railroad..

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Feb. 23.—
While all of the plans have not been perfected, there is good reason for believing that the building of the Southbound Railroad from this city to Wadesboro is practically assured. Bids have been called for to construct culverts, excavate and grade for a distance of nearly two miles, beginning in this city, which will call for an expenditure of from $5,000 to $30,000, and it is thought that a local firm, Messrs. Ebert & Nading, will get this contract. This work will begin at the very utmost would begin at once, but contractors is causing delay by being slow in making bids. There is an enormous the country, and the labor problem delays bidding by contractors. Southbound Railroad.
